

ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP

TENURE

Incorporating Engaged Scholarship into the Tenure Dossier

Perspectives from 3 Recently Tenured Faculty

Friday, December 12, 1-3pm

at The Red Gym: On Wisconsin Room B

Young Mie Kim, Journalism and Mass Communication

Sam Dennis, Landscape Architecture

Brian Christens, Civil Society and Community Studies

Moderator: Kathy Cramer, Political Science & Interim Director, Morgridge Center for Public Service

The panel will discuss how they purposefully integrated Engaged Scholarship into their tenure dossier, including developing a long-term plan for utilizing Engaged Scholarship, assessing community impacts, and documenting their scholarship as well as identifying impediments they encountered along the way and how those impediments were resolved.

For more information, please contact Randy Wallar, Morgridge Center for Public Service Associate Director, at randy.wallar@wisc.edu or 608-262-5781

Engaged Scholarship Roundtable

Sponsored by the Morgridge Center for Public Service and the Office of Service Learning and Community-based Research in the College of Letters & Science