

Academic Staff Annual Performance Review

It has been recommended that the Department of Horticulture place information regarding policies and procedures for annual evaluation of Academic Staff on its website. The official position description for each Academic Staff member should be included with the annual evaluation form distributed to Staff members detailing their years of service, years in current title, and years until expected probation.